The competitive programme challenges undergraduate students from around the world to work on projects aligned with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

Out of 44,000 applicants representing 3,000 campuses from across the globe, roughly 4,000 students from 268 campuses were chosen to participate.

The Millennium Fellowship provides participants with a platform for international networking, access to valuable training sessions, and the opportunity to showcase their projects on a global stage. This experience will conclude with a virtual graduation ceremony in November, where the IUB students will submit final reports on the projects they undertook to uplift their community and peers.

The IUB team includes campus directors, IUB cohort, Millennium Fellowship 2023 Mostofa Fahim Hasan from Computer Science and Engineering department and Tanfia Khan Disha from Biochemistry and Biotechnology. Political.com...

The other nine students, all from department of Biochemistry and Biotechnology, are – Ashrafi Anjuman Sneha, Mehnaz Islam, Namira Tajrin, Rokaya Zannat, Sanjina Alam Maliha, Asmaul Husna, Mohammad Nahid Al Islam, Munasib Ahmed, and Sanjida Saniha Rashid Soha.
