IUB symposium proposes global accreditation recognition for local universities

TIMES Report - OCTOBER 3, 2026 6:17 PM • UPDATED: OCTOBER 3, 2026 6:17 PM

A proposal to apply “Accreditation by Recognition” under ‘BAC Act 2022’ for internationally accredited universities in Bangladesh was presented at a symposium on business school accreditation hosted by Independent University, Bangladesh (IUB), said a press release on Saturday.

The proposal was made by IUB Department of Management Head and AACSB and ACBSP Principal Contact Person Md Mamun Habib during his keynote titled “From Local Excellence to Global Recognition: The Role of International Accreditation.” He presented a comparative analysis of AACSB, ACBSP and BAC standards.

Habib is also the Virtual Ambassador of AACSB International, ACBSP Evaluator and Chair of the Member Relations Committee of ACBSP International.

The symposium, held at DMK Lecture Gallery on 1 October, was organised by IUB’s Institutional Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and focused on the role of international accreditation in strengthening academic quality, institutional recognition and the global competitiveness of business schools.
