

Nat'l Library Day observed at IUB

newagebd.net/article/162427/natl-library-day-observed-at-iub

Independent University, Bangladesh teachers, students and other participants pose for a photo in observance of the National Library Day 2022 on the university campus in Dhaka recently. — Press release

In observance of the National Library Day 2022, the Independent University, Bangladesh Library organised a hybrid discussion session, award giving ceremony and a book donation programme on the university campus in Dhaka on February 6, 2022, said a press on Thursday.

This year's theme for the National Library Day was 'digital library is the pledge of the country's golden jubilee'.

University Grants Commission professor Md Abu Taher attended the event as chief guest while IUB vice-chancellor Tanweer Hasan and pro-vice-chancellor professor Niaz Ahmed Khan attended as special guests. Dhaka University information science and library management professor Kazi Mostak Gausul Hoq joined it virtually.

IUB librarian Hossam Haider Chowdhury gave a short overview of the day and the various resources and services at the IUB Library. He also showed a short video.

This year, IUB Library conferred 'Best User Awards 2022' in three categories — student, faculty members and community library members.

Muaz Rahman Farazin, a student of the School of Engineering, Technology and Sciences of IUB, won the award in the student category. Kazi Mahmudur Rahman, associate professor and head of the Department of Social Sciences and Humanities of IUB, won the award in the faculty member category and Manmay Zafar, associate professor of the Department of English of Jahangirnagar University, clinched the community library member award.